

MINERS' COMMITTEE AGAIN IN SESSION TO CONSIDER WILSON PLAN FOR SETTLING THE STRIKE

After Failing to Agree on First Day, Delegates Convene Today at 10 O'clock for Further Discussion; Belief is General That Proposal That Men Accept 14 Per Cent Increase and Submit Settlement to a Commission Will be Accepted.

DETAILS OF THE PRESIDENT'S PROPOSITION

By Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Dec. 10.—The general committee of the United Mine Workers of America reconvened shortly before 10 o'clock this morning for further consideration of President Wilson's proposal for ending the strike of 400,000 bituminous coal miners of the country.

It is generally expected the proposal providing for the immediate return to work of the miners at an increase of 14 per cent in wages and the appointment of a commission of three men to adjust wages would be accepted before the conference adjourned for the day.

As the committee which consists of international and district officers and members of the executive board and scale committees continued in session, gossip as to the causes of the prolonged session was rife. Practically all believe that President Wilson's proposal would be accepted some time today. One high official in the miners' organization, who asked that his name be withheld, said most of the afternoon yesterday was on the request of the Illinois miners that the Cleveland convention be reconvened to act on the proposal of President Wilson. Another rumor stated that the members of the general committee from Illinois, in conference last night had agreed to accept the proposal today.

The conference recessed at 12:05 until 1:30 for lunch. Acting President John L. Lewis said he expected the miners to finish today. Mr. Lewis appeared confident during the noon recess of winning the fight for acceptance of the President's plan when it comes to a final vote. Frank Farrington, head of the Illinois miners, who have composed a group said to be strongest in opposition to acceptance of the proposal, made a lengthy speech before adjournment of the committee. It could not be learned whether he continued in his opposition, or as reported earlier, set forth the attitude of the Illinois delegation as having decided to support the proposal. It was asserted this morning that the miners, led by Mr. Farrington, had decided at a caucus last night to discontinue their opposition to settlement on the basis set forth in the President's plan.

Text of Wilson Proposal to End the Miners' Strike

By Associated Press.
INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 9.—The text of President Wilson's proposal to the miners follows:
"I have watched with deep concern the developments in the bituminous coal strike and am convinced there is much confusion in the minds of the people generally and possibly of both parties to this unfortunate controversy as to the attitude and purposes of the government in its handling of the situation.
"The mine owners offered a wage increase of 20 per cent, conditioned, however, upon the prices of coal being raised to an amount sufficient to cover this proposed increase of wages, which would have added at least $150,000,000 to the annual coal bill of the people. The Fuel Administrator, in the light of present information, has taken the position, and I think with justice, that the public is now paying as high prices for coal as it ought to be required to pay and that any wage increase made at this time ought to come out of the profits of the coal operators.
"In reaching this conclusion, the Fuel Administrator expressed the personal opinion that the 14 per cent increase in all mine wages is reasonable because it would equate the miners' wages on the average with the cost of living, but he was not fully clear as to the operators and miners are at liberty to agree upon a larger increase provided the operators will pay it out of their profits so that the price of coal would remain the same.
"The Secretary of Labor, in an effort at conciliation between the parties expressed his personal opinion in favor of a larger increase. His effort at conciliation failed, however, because the coal operators were unwilling to pay the scale he proposed unless the government would advance the price of coal to the public and this the government was unwilling to do.
"The Fuel Administrator also suggested that a tribunal be created in which the miners and operators would be equally represented to consider further questions of wages and working conditions, as well as profits of operators and proper prices for coal. I shall, of course, be glad to aid in the formation of such a tribunal. I understand the operators base

After the conference with Mr. Conner, the auditor general arranged for appraisals of the Frick properties in Pennsylvania.

COLD WAVE FOLLOWS ALMOST SPRINGLIKE DAY; THERMOMETER PLUNGES DOWN FROM 68 TO 20

Low Temperatures Prevail Over Entire Country; Further Drop Likely.

The cold wave predicted by the weather bureau came on schedule today, rain and spring-like weather of the afternoon and early night turning to snow and a decided drop in temperature during the night. From afternoon until this morning there was a decline of 48 degrees, the thermometer registering 68 for the maximum of the day and 20 this morning.

While it was warmer at noon by several degrees than during the early morning, according to the thermometer, colder is forecast for later in the day by the noon bulletin which reads: "Fair tonight, except snow flurries near Lake Erie; colder, with a cold wave tonight; Thursday, fair and continued cold."
The temperature was lower by two degrees during the season, but on no occasion was the cold felt as keenly as today, driven as it was by a strong wind. Street corners and spots along the river, especially the Baltimore and Ohio depot, were anything but pleasant places to be.

REPUBLICANS MUST PREPARE TO CLEAN UP GOVERNMENTAL MESS, GOV. SPROUL DECLARES

Attacks Government Policy in Keynote Address of G. O. P. Committee Meeting.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 10.—Governor Sproul of Pennsylvania in a keynote speech at the meeting today of the Republican National committee attacked the administration policy and declared the "Republican party" approached the coming presidential campaign with confidence that the people would endorse its policies. His outline of these policies included a better relation between capital and labor, economy and business management in administration, a firm handling of the Mexican situation, restoration of Americanism and constitutional government and a sound solution of the railroad problem.
Referring briefly to the question of peace the governor declared that the Republican citizenship "had endeavored to cooperate in the conclusion of the matter with only such limitations as will preserve to the republic its full right to determine its own affairs under the constitution."
"We must prepare," said Governor Sproul, "not only to clean up the government mess in which we find ourselves but we must lay out plans for restoring our nation in the respect which it once held."
Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the Woman's Division of the R. N. C., can party, said women would support the Republican party because "it is the sole instrument for the preservation of national and liberty." The party, she said, would continue to champion "social justice under the law and the fervent principles of nationalism which Roosevelt maintained to the end."

Mention of Colonel Roosevelt's name brought a storm of applause.
Mrs. McCormick declared the Republican party had been the pioneer in laws protecting children and women and she predicted that the Republican states which have not ratified the suffrage amendment "in the constitution would do so in time to allow the women of those states to participate in the next national election."

PROMOTERS OF PRESTO COAL COMPANY FOUND GUILTY OF CONSPIRACY

O'Donnell and Peters Convicted On Both Counts, Yanik Only of Conspiracy.

The case of W. D. O'Donnell, Emil E. Peters and John J. Yanik, officers and promoters of the Presto Coal company for the ostensible purpose of developing a tract in Stewart township in which the promoters were charged with fraud, was given to the jury in court in Uniontown this morning. Judge E. H. Repper, delivered his charge to the jury at the opening of court.
O'Donnell and Peters were found guilty of conspiracy to defraud and false pretense, in a verdict returned shortly after noon. Yanik was convicted only of conspiracy to defraud. There are 14 other indictments against the same men but the cases are not expected to come to trial. The defendants are likely to enter pleas in accordance with the verdict returned by the jury.

The case was on trial all last week. The defendants were accused of securing money by fraud through the sale of stock in a coal company which was to develop a big tract of land near Ohioport. Foreign workers were promised many wonderful things when the plant got to working. It was testified, among them seven-room modern houses with bath, electric light, heat and cold water, for the married men, and wives for the single ones. Schools, churches and last but not least, saloons, with dividends of 10 per cent three times a year, were other promises.
Arguing the importance of the case Tuesday afternoon District Attorney S. John Morrow laid great stress upon the radical tendencies among foreigners and stated that an acquittal of the defendants in the present case would warp the minds of those foreigners defrauded of their money against the constituted government in this country. Counsel for the defendants denied any fraudulent intent of their clients.

MINIATURE MINSTRELS USED TO BOOST THE LEGION SHOW

A novelty in the way of advertising for an amateur theatrical performance is that in Wright-Ketler's window, exploiting the American Legion show, which will be held in the high school auditorium, December 17 and 18. Tiny little "catons" representing as many members of the company have been arranged as they will appear on the stage, each labeled with the name of the song he will sing. The figures were drawn by Byron Shoff, a member of the Legion, and they have been rendered "classy" by all who have seen them. Those in blackface are especially good, each being perfectly proportioned and every detail of expression and costume worked out with great care. Seated in the center is a representation of J. Montgomery Dilworth, who will be master of ceremonies in the first part. One of the larger drawings shows Harry Percy in the act of singing "I Don't Want a Doctor," and another, Mr. Shoff himself, in an impersonation of Bert Williams, jug in hand, rendering that pathe number: "You can have my house, you can have my car; you can have my wife, if you want to go that far, but you can't have the key to my cellar."
In Brownell's window is another "cut-out" advertising the show, also the work of Mr. Shoff.
Seats for the show may be reserved at the Connellsville Drug store, beginning December 16, at 10 A. M.

DAMAGES OF $20,000 CLAIMED AS RESULT OF MOTOR COLLISION

A. C. Stichel, Whose Car and Cycle Crash at Poplar Grove, is Deaf and Mute in Two Suits.

Two damage suits of $10,000 each were filed in Uniontown this morning against A. C. Stichel of this city as the result of a collision between Mr. Stichel's automobile and a motorcycle ridden by John D'Emilio and Kenneth Hartman, in which D'Emilio was so badly injured that he died at the Cottage State hospital.

The suit in the D'Emilio case was brought by Constantine D'Emilio in behalf of the son whose labor, it is alleged, produced $50 a month for the father. Hartman is the plaintiff in the other action. He avers he was seriously injured and his machine wrecked.

The accident, happened March 23, 1919, at the junction of the Connellsville-Mount Pleasant road with the Swangertown road at Poplar Grove. The plaintiffs allege the chauffeur of the automobile was not observing proper care in handling the machine. D'Emilio died April 3.

AUTO-TROLLEY COLLISION

Car of Mrs. John Brown Struck in Crawford Avenue; Nobody Hurt.

An automobile driven by Mrs. John R. Brown and carrying also Mrs. Frank Brown and daughter of the South Side and a West Penn car collided at Crawford avenue and Arch street Tuesday evening at 4:30 o'clock. Mrs. Brown was making the turn from Arch street into Crawford and the car was starting toward the West Side. Nobody was injured but the fender and running board of the automobile were damaged. The car remained upright and Mrs. Brown was still at the wheel when the two cars came to a stop. The trolley car backed away and Mrs. Brown did likewise. After the fender had been fixed from the wheel she resumed her way.

The accident happened at the same spot where Patrolman D. H. Turner's automobile was struck by a trolley car a few weeks ago. Chief of Police W. B. Bowers, who was in Turner's car at the time, was a witness of Tuesday's accident.

MONSTER BEAR KILLED

Local Hunters Help to Drag Bruin From Cave Near White Haven.

Albert S. Silcox, J. A. Welshouse and Frank Meekes of Connellsville and George McCart of West Pittsburg arrived home this morning from a hunting trip to Carbon county. They did not get a deer but had a part in the taking of a bear weighing 450 pounds, shot by another hunting party. The animal was killed as it was emerging from its place of abode in a cavern and as the shot struck it crawled back. It required eight men to pull it out.
The hunters saw plenty of deer but backs were scarce. The weather was not right for the hunt. They made their headquarters at White Haven.

LIBERTY LOAN TEAMS MAY AID COMMERCE BOARD

Put Men Who Did Such Good Work During War on Membership Drive, Is Idea.

Plans Are Shaping Up

Statistics Being Compiled for Manufacturers Who Contemplate Locating Here; Industries Committee to Look for New Ones and Care for Old.

Drafting of the Liberty Loan teams for a membership canvass for the revived Chamber of Commerce is under consideration by J. W. McClaren, chairman of the committee which will have the campaign in charge. This information was given out by Chairman J. E. Angle of the board of directors at an informal conference of members at council chamber last evening at which time, owing to lack of a quorum, the meeting called to further discuss chamber plans was postponed until next Tuesday night.

Mr. McClaren has not completed his plans, the chairman says, but the proposed calling on the Liberty Loan workers to help put the chamber on its feet again is considered probable. Chairman John L. Gans of the committee on statistics indicated that much progress has been made toward securing the required information. Mr. Gans said he had several agencies at work with a view to compiling data on the labor supply and wages paid in the Connellsville region, fuel resources and the volume of business of the post office as a barometer of the business and industrial activity of the city. He also has in view gathering general facts and figures that he deems of interest to manufacturers seeking locations in the city or nearby, all of which will be compiled in readily accessible form and printed.

The committee on industries, of which E. T. Norton was named chairman, will devote its attention not only to the securing of additional manufacturing plants but will pay attention also to those which are already in the field. Mr. Norton has in view, Mr. Angle said, visits by the members of the committee to the establishments for the purpose of bringing about closer cooperation between the commerce body and the manufacturers.
It is not expected that much will be accomplished by the chamber before the Christmas holidays but the e are some things that the chairman wishes to discuss with the board and for that reason a meeting was set for next week at which it is hoped all members will be in attendance.

SAMPLES OLIVES

State Health Agent Securing Them for Purpose of Analysis.

A warning to persons having an appetite for ripe olives was issued by E. M. Gooderman, special agent of the food bureau of the State Department of Agriculture, who visited Fayette county yesterday, securing samples of olives in stores in Connellsville, Uniontown and elsewhere. Mr. Gooderman pointed to the story of 12 deaths that had been traced to a "careless, odorless, invisible poison, a deadly solution found in a certain brand of ripe olives. Fearing that other brands of ripe olives might also contain the fatal poison the state has ordered Mr. Gooderman to take samples from stocks offered for sale of all ripe olives.

The brand of olives found to contain the fatal poison to which it attributed the death of five persons in Detroit, and seven in Canton, O., and the severe illness of eight others, is known as the Mammoth brand of Supreme Olives, packed by the Curtis Corporation of Food Packers, 30 West Broadway, New York city, and bears the code number GN3002. All olive bottles in which the code number begins with GN and ends with the figures 02 should be sent unopened to Prof. Charles H. LeWall, Philadelphia College of Pharmacy, or to Dr. Randall C. Rosenberger, Jefferson Medical College, Mr. Gooderman said.
An embargo has been placed on this particular brand of ripe olives by the State Department of Food and Agriculture and Mr. Gooderman is also acting in conjunction with a movement of the department to have the associations of merchants, grocers and wholesalers assist in preventing sales of the interdicted brand. The embargo does not apply to any other brand of "ripe olives grown to green olives but every effort is being made to procure samples of all ripe olives on the market for the purpose of analysis to make certain that the poison is confined to one brand.

It was a big job and a dirty one but it was accomplished successfully. The church is now in a fair way to being warmer and the heating will be accomplished at a saving of coal, which is scarce enough.

HELPS PAY FOR GOOD ROADS

In 1918 Nearly 91 Per Cent of Motor Vehicle Tax Was Applied to Highway Improvement.

Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The increase in motorcar registrations and revenues in the United States during the past two years represents some interesting comparisons. This is especially true in respect to the use made of the revenues. In 1906 the total registrations were approximately 48,000 cars, paying a gross revenue of about $100,000, or roughly the same as the returns from the District of Columbia for the year 1918. Furthermore in 1906 the gross registration revenues represented less than three-tenths of 1 per cent of the total rural road and bridge expenditures for that year; in 1918 the motor-vehicle revenues represented approximately 21 per cent of the total road and bridge expenditures for that year. Furthermore, while in 1906 practically none of the motor-vehicle revenues were applied to road construction or maintenance, in 1918 nearly 91 per cent of the gross returned, or $48,936,891, were devoted to this purpose in 46 states, and of the total amount applied to road work 77 per cent, or $36,361,473, was expended more or less directly under the control or supervision of the state highway departments.

An Envidable Reputation Already Won

Hundreds of dealers who drove new Cleveland Sixes from the factory in Cleveland to their home cities have written the factory expressing their admiration and confidence in the car. What they all say is summed up in this sentence from one of them, "I can look any man in the face now and tell him the Cleveland is a regular automobile."

And that's what the Cleveland Six is—a regular automobile, an unusual automobile.

Hundreds of Cleveland Sixes, within the past four months, have undergone long, grueling, cross country drives, with honor. They have passed over great hill drives and long mountain climbs, plowed through mud and washouts and desert sands where other cars stall and stop. Its power and endurance have already won the Cleveland an enviable reputation.

This is not surprising for skill and sincerity are built into this car by men who have contributed their genius to the building up of one of America's finest quality cars.

HOW WEAK WOMEN ARE MADE STRONG

Mrs. Westmoreland Tells in the Following Letter.

Harrison, N. Y.—"When my first child was born I did not know about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and had a very hard time. I read in the newspaper about the Vegetable Compound and when my second child came I took it and was well during the whole time, and childbirth was a hundred times easier. Ever since then I have used it for every weakness and would not be without it for the world. I do all my work, and am strong and healthy. I am nursing my baby, and I still take the Vegetable Compound as it keeps a woman in good health. You may publish my testimonial for the good of other women, if you choose to do so."—Mrs. C. CHURCHES PREPARING FOR CHRISTMASTIDE

The churches of Conneltsville are busy with preparations for Christmas. In all of them there will be services of some character—cantatas in most of them, either on Christmas or the Sunday preceding.

In Trinity Lutheran church an unusual feature in connection with the presentation of a cantata, "The Heart of a Bell," on Sunday evening, December 21, will be the use of the chimes throughout. The music of the chimes can be plainly heard in the church and they will add much to the beauty of the service. Costumes will be used by the singers, who will impersonate biblical characters. Another feature will be a white vest choir of children. The cantata will be under the direction of Miss Pearl Keck.

"The Word Fulfilled" is the title of a cantata to be presented in the First Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. Preparations for this are now under way. A treat also will be given the children. C. W. Downs is at the head of the committee arranging for this.

In Trinity Reformed church a custom established last year—that of an early Christmas morning service, starting at 8 o'clock, will be held. This will consist mostly of musical numbers. On Christmas evening the Sunday school will give an entertainment.

The Methodist Episcopal church will have a cantata on Sunday evening. C. D. Bailey is head of the committee in charge. On Christmas eve there will be an old-fashioned Christmas gathering, with a Christmas tree and entertainment for the children. Santa Claus will be present.

"The Eternal Light" is the title of a cantata to be presented by the choir of the Methodist Protestant church on Sunday morning before Christmas. There will be exercises that morning in the Sunday school and a treat for the children.

Special programs are being arranged in the United Brethren and United Presbyterian churches.

The Sunday school of Trinity Episcopal church will present a cantata, "The Trimming of the Tree," probably on Christmas night. In connection with this the choir will sing Christmas carols. A big treat will be given the children. Herbert Pratt and Mrs. Paul Gerke compose the committee in charge.

Children of the Sunday school of the Christian church are working hard on a cantata, "Santa Has the Grip," which will be presented on Christmas night. Miss Bessie Gilmore is in charge. There will probably be a treat for the children of the beginners and primary departments on the Sunday preceding Christmas.

OPPOSES GAS BAN

Expert Thinks W. Va. Is Wrong in Trying to Keep It All Himself.
By Associated Press.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Dec. 10.—That he does not approve the building of a state wall which would deprive a sister state of natural gas or any other natural resource was the testimony of J. K. Anderson, gas expert of the West Virginia public service commission, today before the Ohio public utilities commission which is investigating the state's gas supply.

Mr. Anderson said he is not in accord with the Steptoe law passed by the West Virginia legislature which would prevent the export of gas from the state. The action was held up by injunction proceedings in the United States Supreme court brought by Attorney General Price of Ohio. Anderson said gas production in West Virginia had decreased 5.7 per cent during 1918 and that during 1919 the decrease will amount to 15.4 per cent. He suggested as a remedy the curtailment of the use of gas, that it be made a domestic fuel only. He would cut off the industrial use although it would necessitate increase in price to the domestic consumer.

He is undaunted by further details sent out by the copper miners of Northern Manitoba to the effect that they want "the man, who wears a mackinaw jacket and stuffs his pants in his boots, can paddle a canoe, play a good game of poker, and give a good account of himself in a knockdown-and-drag-out row."

Send to 119 Church place anything you can give to help in this work and we will be thankful. We are doing our best." The envoy's telephone is Bell 181.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, DEC. 10, 1919.

THE FUEL INDUSTRY STILL THE GOAT.

The coal and coke operators continue to be the chief subjects of resolutions and regulation by the governmental agencies, as well as the target of every abusive and libelous damaging campaign, as a state-man, while also being called upon to make all sorts of sacrifices.

Of all the producers of essential commodities the coal and coke operators have been most violently assailed from every quarter, apparently upon the assumption that they are the chiefest of sinners in all things that relate to the present high cost of living. They have been treated as if it is also being shown to be true of peace-time.

Not only are coke operators now being required to divert 25 per cent of their output into the new coal market, at the fixed price which yields less than would be received for the coke equivalent, but they are now obliged to submit to a re-inspection of the war-time price maximum for coke —conditions which prevail in no other industry at this time.

While they have patiently endured all the hardships imposed upon them, and patriotically met every emergency at the government's request, and will continue to do so, the producers of coal and coke have a just cause for complaint that they have been singled out and the producers of other essential commodities given free rein as to production and prices and relieved of all restrictions as to operation, save such as they themselves may deem necessary to apply with a view to maintaining prices at a high level.

This may serve certain exigencies but it is as unjust as it is partial and unfair to make a single industry the goat of the nation's economic sins.

OUR PRIDE IN OUR PROGRESS.

The extension of the business of The Aaron Company to include the building of a branch in Uniontown, which will represent an investment in ground, building and stock of $500,000, is more than evidence of the progress made by this enterprise since its beginning in Conneltsville comparatively a few years ago. It is proof of the splendid facilities and advantages Connellsville offers as the location of a commercial undertaking which can make an appeal for patronage in all parts of the district of which our city has become the logical business center. It shows, too, that notwithstanding the questions of taxation and the business in the Conneltsville trading district has grown steadily from year to year until the establishments of Conneltsville have acquired commanding leadership in their respective lines. Numbered among those leaders are our mercantile, houses, banks and industries.

This has become true to a greater extent than the average citizen realizes, perhaps, but by observing the progress the various enterprises of the city have made, and coming in contact with people who are in position or qualified to make comparisons between communities, this fact becomes plain.
That this is true is very much to the credit of our city—so much, in fact, that every citizen ought to have a pride in every evidence of progress every establishment displays.

The city is the people. Its industries, its institutions and its business enterprises taken collectively, the advancement or prosperity of any one of the four constituent groups means the advancement or prosperity of all others. Not exactly in the same proportion, of course, but as a measure of the interest the several groups have in each other and as all have an interest in the community.

In proportion as citizens realize that everything Conneltsville has that is of use or can be instrumental in improving the city and making it a good place in which to transact business, or establish a business, to build a factory or to make a home, just so will our city grow and prosper and the business share in the growth and prosperity. Nothing is greater than its creator, so also is no town better than its people make it.

Of course the coke operators have proper appreciation of the efforts Washington has put forth to keep them in the war.

Send your Christmas purchases with the purchase of Christmas Seal.

Most natural thing in the world that it was reserved to a Conneltsville man to place Conneltsville on the furniture map. Putting across is an achievement Uniontown has conceded to Conneltsville.

To show how the campaign to reduce the high cost of living is proceeding, the record for November reveals 36 staple commodities to have advanced an average of 1.3 per cent over October. The score now stands at only 1.1 per cent above the pre-war level.

If you have trouble in finding rare and valuable gifts for Christmas you cannot go amiss in substituting a dozen eggs or a few pounds of sugar.

What would Sherman say about some of the after-the-war restrictions?

King Not Guilty.
Under binding instructions from Judge Van Swearingen a jury from the box yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of not guilty in favor of J. C. King, of North Union township, tried upon a charge of malicious mischief, prosecuted by Mrs. Frank Varndell. An additional indictment of harassment was quashed by the court. By agreement of counsel King paid the costs.

Do your Christmas shopping now.

THE LIGHTS.

There are dazzling lights that flash in trade written displays wonder displayed.
The sky glows bright when the night slips down
And the lights are lit in the gaudy town.

And over the faces of buildings tall,
High on the roofs and on many a wall,
There are numberless brilliant tongues of light.
That speak to men as they pass at night.

The wares of their masters they shrink along.
They swirl and dance for the noisy crowd.
They do mad tricks to attract the eye
And they flaunt the products they have to buy.

'This is a theatre!' shouts a sign.
And the stars are paled by the flashing line.
And a million lights are on fire to tell
The story of something that mortals sell.

But far away on a quiet street
There are gentler lights for the eye to meet.
There the shaded lamp in the sick child's room.
That sends one ray through the night of gloom.

And the brighter light in the kindly shop.
Which gives a welcome to all who call.
And the cluster of lights in the ceiling dome
Which tells the joy and the peace of home.

Oh, the lights of the street are fair to see,
But their brilliance has little of charm for me.
And the eye grows tired of the dazzling flash
That is flaunted there in the name of cash.

I'd rather the one little light that
That shines for me where my loved ones are.
Than all of the lights in the noisy
town.
When the day is done and the night slips down.

plies Oil to Stove.

MOTHER'S RECOVERY DOUBTFUL

Surviving Members of Company E Plan Memorial Tablet for the Army, Together With Pictures of Men Who Made Supreme Sacrifice.

Special to The Courier.
MT. PLEASANT, Dec. 10.—Theresa Kubit of United, with her baby on her arm, made an effort to start a fire with kerosene oil at her home yesterday morning. An explosion followed that set the woman's clothing on fire and slightly burned the baby. The husband, who works at night, came in just in time to throw a rug around the woman and smother the flames. Mrs. Kubit is burned seriously over her entire body, her face and hands. The baby has a few blisters over its body but is not in a serious condition. They were brought to the Memorial hospital where it was stated the woman's chances for recovery are doubtful.

"E" Men Pinn Memorial.
At a meeting of the surviving members of Company E, 110th regiment it was decided to erect a bronze tablet at the State Armory for the men who lost their lives in the war. This list will be headed with Captain Zundel and followed by William C. Stevenson, lieutenant, and include the names of all the other men. Enlarged photographs of Captain Zundel and Lieutenant Stevenson will be hung in the rest room, with smaller photos of every man who made the supreme sacrifice. The expense of this is to be borne by assessment on the surviving members. Any man who has at any time been a member of Company E, or who feels a friendly interest in the boys may donate any small amount to Frank Carbaugh or Wilmer Fox and this money will be greatly appreciated.

Offensive Breath Caused by Catarrh

Frequent and Thorough Washing With Mucol Solution Best to Keep Down Odor and Restore Diseased Membranes
to Normal.

Doctors all over this country have used and prescribed MUCOL in severe catarrhal conditions of the mucous membranes of nose and throat. In some cases the odors have been stopped up for long periods; crusts had formed and mucus collected in cavities from which it could not be removed. Raw sore throats often resulted; the eyes became weak and watery; the breath foul, while the odors of mucus were gradually disappearing. The MUCOL method of treatment, which is extremely easy to apply, quickly shows a decided improvement. All the disagreeable symptoms rapidly disappear. The eyes, the nose and the throat soon become healthy and cause there is no more inflammation and Catarrh germs to cause it. Don't delay. Get a bottle of MUCOL today and take pity on that Catarrh-infected nose and throat. All first-class druggists can supply you.—Adv.

"Did you get by with it?"
"I did. After I had agreed to all the amendments she demanded, she was perfectly satisfied to do as I said."

You Can Tell Which People Have Iron in Their Blood—Strong

Healthy, Vigorous Folks—

City Physician Says Ordinary Nourished Will Increase the Strength of Nervous, Run-down People in Two Weeks' Time in Many Cases.

ONE glance is enough to tell which people have iron in their blood. They are the ones that do and dare. They are in the working class. Sleepless nights spent worrying over, supposed ailments, constant dreading of habit forming drugs and narcotics, and useless attempts to brace up with strong coffee—other stimulants are what keep them suffering and vainly trying to be strong. Their real trouble is lack of iron in the blood. Without iron the blood has no power to change food into vital tissue and, therefore, making you eat does you good; you don't get the strength out of it. When iron is supplied it enriches the impoverished blood and gives the body greater resistance to ward off disease.

Thousands of nervous, run-down people who were ailing all the while have most astonishingly increased their strength and endurance simply by taking iron in the proper form. And this, after they had in some cases been going down for months without getting benefit from anything.

If you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Next take two or three bottles of ordinary nourished iron (three times per day after meals for two weeks). Then test your strength again and see for yourself how much you have gained. There is nothing like good food iron to help you color in your cheeks and stand healthy and strong on your feet. But you must take iron in a form that can be easily absorbed and assimilated like nourished iron if you want it to do you any good, otherwise it may prove worse than useless.

FOUND GOLD IN TRUNK

Boy Discovered Hidden Treasure

While rummaging in his barn, a young man of 16 years of age, who is now a member of the United States army, discovered a gold watch and a bank certificate of deposit for $1,100. Interest due on the certificate amounted to $308.

The trunk belonged to Thomas Smith, an uncle of the boy's father, who carried it with him from Missouri ten years ago and put it in the barn when he went to the Ohio Soldiers' and Sailors' home, where he later died.

BEEHIVE OUTPUT IS STIMULATED BY THE COAL STRIKE

Revival of War-Time Prices on Coal and Restrictions on By-Product
Are the Principal Reasons.

The coal strike continues to stimulate rather than restrict the output of beehive coke, says the weekly report of the United States Geological Survey. Production during the week ended November 22 was 424,000 net tons, the highest mark attained since last May, with the exception of the first three weeks of September immediately preceding the steel strike. All districts except West Virginia reported an increase.

The reasons for this greater production of beehive coke are not far to seek. The ovens for the most part lie in non-union fields, which have been but little affected by the strike. The closing down of union mines has left an abundance of open-top ear equipment for those mines remaining at work. Restrictions on the release of coal have applied to by-products coke makers as well as to other industries, and the demand for beehive coke has no doubt thereby been intensified. The fact that the war-time maximum prices have been restored upon coal but not upon coke has placed a premium upon the conversion of coal into coke at the mines.

Production by districts, compared with the corresponding week of last year was as follows:

District	1918	1919
Penn. and Ohio	318,576	380,760
West Va.	17,247	36,457
Ala., Tenn. and Ga.	12,508	45,729
Va. and Ky.	28,852	23,100
Colo., Okla. and N. M.	13,623	19,783
Wash. and Utah	4,823	11,997

Malines Carillon Busy.
The carillon of Malines has never been heard so much and to such splendid effect as of late. The truth is that Malines has undertaken to get together a sufficient sum of money with which to present to St. Quentin a new carillon, the Germans having seized the bells of the French town. So every carillon of Malines has been ringing and pealing. There have been carillon concerts, one of the performers on the bells of the cathedral of St. Quentin being the bell ringer of St. Quentin himself. The hymn which he played embodied the motto of the "Marsellaise" and the "Brahmascene."

BRONCHITIS AND LUNGS

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"I feel very grateful for what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery did for me. I am enjoying good health today because of its use. About five years ago in the month of November I caught a severe cold which settled in my bronchial tubes and on my lungs. I had the doctor but his medicine did not seem to help me. I kept getting worse all the time. My cough became very alarming. When I would take these severe coughing spells I would notice blood. Got so I could not move around if I did I would have one of these spells. I went on a lay-up until February and I began to think there was no help for me—I was ready to give up when I happened to get hold of a little bottle and read of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I made up my mind to try it as I was about all in. I had taken about four bottles before I could much improvement but from that time on I gained fast. I took several bottles and it was money well spent for it completely restored me to good health which I am still enjoying thanks to this good medicine."

—MR. C. E. TRUDE, JENNEVINE, 404 Hemlock St.

FAMILY DEPENDED ON IT

Burnham, Pa.—"I am writing this in regard to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and am willing to have it published. My mother used the 'Discovery' constantly and would not be without it. It was a reconstructive tonic and the family always depended on it. I think Dr. Pierce's medicine for men, all others, and hope those who are suffering will turn to him for aid. I thank Dr. Pierce for his advice and kindness and can heartily recommend his medicine to all who may be suffering."

—MORRIS W. RAMSEY, Route 2.

"Any medicine dealer will supply you with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in either liquid or tablet form, or send 10 cents to Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., for trial package."

FRANK CHANCE ONCE DARED JIM CORBETT

Accused Champion of "Framing" With Kid McCoy.

Former Baseball Star Started Out With Intention of Giving Pugillist a Thrashing—Bartender Interfered at the Right Time.

The best fighters are not in the ring. Many athletes in lines far removed from the walls of the ring, could battle with more effect than some of the boys who earn their money meeting the lads in their class in the glove game.

Of all athletes in recent years who might be depended upon to give a good account of themselves in any sort of engagement, Frank Chance, famed as the manager of the Chicago Cubs, a few years ago, was a real champion. He was always in first-class condition and was as game as a mountain trout.

Chance was going to whip former Champion Corbett in the latter place of business in New York on one occasion, and only the rare presence of mind on the part of a bartender prevented what might have been a nasty encounter. Chance, with some friends, had witnessed the Corbett-McCoy fight in Madison Square garden in August, 1900. That was the bout in which both fighters were accused of having Frank Chance.

"Framed." Chance paid $25 for a box seat at the show, and when it was over the Cub star was in a white rage.

He told his friends he was going to Corbett's office at Twenty-third and Broadway the next day to tell the former champion what he thought of his integrity, and, if necessary, he would take a smash at the boxer. He called on Corbett as he promised. Corbett met Frank with a smile on his face. Chance unloaded his criticism and decorated it with a few compliments for Corbett that swept the latter off his feet. Chance dared Corbett to raise his hands, but before Corbett could do so, the bartender told Corbett he was wanted on the phone.

Some friends hustled Chance out of the place. Corbett was taken to town in another room and the trouble blew over. The matter was fixed up a few years later, and now Corbett and Chance are good friends, although Chance has never backed down from his stand that the fight was a ruse. There are not many men outside of the fight game who would have courted trouble with Corbett at that time.

STONEHAM BUYS REAL HORSE

Owner of New York Giants Purchased Bally, Winner of Jerome Handicap, at Auction.

Having bought a race track within the past few weeks, Charles A. Stoneham, owner of the New York National League team, bought a real race horse the other day at Empire City. He purchased Bally, a five-year-old son of Bahadur, at the auction sale of the horses in training from the stable of James Butler.

Stoneham races under the name of the Casco Stable. But the horses that have run in his colors have been selling platters of very poor quality.

His purchase of Bally, who won the Jerome Handicap, and for which he paid $4,500, would seem to indicate that the owner of the Giants is going to build up a formidable stable. As owner with John J. McGraw of Oriental Park in Havana, Cuba, Stoneham probably thinks that he should have a few real thoroughbreds representing him on the track.

Everyone Should Drink Hot Water in the Morning

Wash away all stomach, liver, and bowel poisons before breakfast.

To feel your best day in and day out, to feel clean inside, no sour bile to coat your tongue, and no constipation, oillogs attacks, sick headaches, colds, rheumatism, or "gas" in the stomach, you must bathe on the inside like you bathe outside. This is vastly more important, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

To keep these poisons and toxins well flushed from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, drink before breakfast each day, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will cleanse, purify, and freshen the entire alimentary tract before eating more food.

Get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from your pharmacist. It is inexpensive and almost tasteless. Drink phosphated hot water every morning to rid your system of these vile poisons and toxins; also to prevent their formation.—Adv.

Smithfield

SMITHFIELD, Dec 9—John Calvin Black, head of the firm of Black Bros., was 63 years old Monday, December 8, 1919. His sister, Lizzie, gave a dinner in honor of the occasion at her home on Church street, Sunday at which all of the immediate members of the family were present. Calvin bears his years well and spry than the average boy of 20. He has a card of invitation that he received while employed in Connellsville, dated November 25, 1875, which was before he had obtained his majority and was an invitation to attend a two days festival given by Gallsin Lodge No 5171, O. O. F. At the dedication of their new lodge room at Smithfield, Pa., their ball which occupied the site of one that a short time previous to this had been burned by a fire of incendiary origin, the perpetrators of which were apprehended, tried and served terms in the pen. The invitation is printed on a postal card and was mailed to Calvin from Uniontown by his father, B. F. Black, who was a member of the lodge James Abraham and L. W. Burchinal appear on the card as committee on arrangements. The three above named are long since deceased. The hall mentioned is now owned by G. A. Peacher, the post office being in the building. At this time Calvin was not an Odd Fellow, was not old enough, but as soon as he attained the age of 21 he joined King David Lodge of Dunbar, and has held his membership there ever since. The building above mentioned was built and owned by L. W. Burchinal, the lodge room was converted into a dwelling, and is now occupied with the rooms adjoining by the writer as a dwelling and office.

An unknown autist ran into and painfully injured two children of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Williams, in front of their home on the brick road between Smithfield and Ruble, Saturday night. The driver of the car gave no warning and displayed only one light on his car, and did not stop to see what injury he had done.

Dr. Phil, presiding elder of the McKeesport district, filed the pulpit of the M. E. church Sunday evening and transacted business of the first quarterly conference at this place. C. O. Bosley, slaughtered three porkers Monday morning, loaded them in a wagon and hauled them to his father's farm three miles out where he caulked them and finished the job of butchering and hauled the meat back home. His father killed several the same day.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Johnson of Cairo, Ohio, who have been visiting relatives in this community since before Thanksgiving, came here Monday from Massillon and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dunn. Mr. Dunn is a brother of Mrs. Johnson. Mrs. Johnson was born and reared on a farm in Nicholson township, moved from McDonald, Pa., to Allen county Ohio 25 years ago, bought a farm there for $100 per acre which he recently sold for $250 per acre and bought property in Cairo, where they now live a retired life. He lived several years in Georges township on the Solomon Smith farm while living there he had a severe case of sickness.

SMITHFIELD, Dec 10—Isaac Miller, aged 87 years four months, died at the home of A. C. Miller, his son at noon Monday, December 8. The funeral will be held at the house at 2 o'clock P. M. Wednesday. Rev. Paul Elliott, assisted by Rev. M. R. Hackman officiating, followed by interment in the Baptist cemetery. The deceased was never apparently a heavy, robust man yet by his temperate habits, and right manner of living he lived to be the next oldest man in this community. Four sons A. C. Sherman, H. Luther, of Smithfield, I. D. of Fairbance, and William of Duquesne survive. A brother George is living but his place of abode is not known.

The Ladies' Aid society and the King's Daughters of the M. E. church, will hold a festival and food sale in the town hall Saturday December 13. Jerry Jones Post, No. 541 Dept. P. G. A. R. at their regular meeting held Saturday, December 6 elected the following officers for the ensuing year: P. C. J. A. Rankin, S. V. C. Hays Gaskill, J. V. C. W. V. V. Mayfield, Adjt. H. O. Neil, Q. M. A. J. Smith, chaplain Allen Bolen, O. D. G. W. Burner, O. G. H. C. Huhn. The post pays per capita tax on 26 members.

A. L. Glover of Out-Crop, was a borough business visitor Tuesday. William Rhodes of Haydentown was a borough business visitor Monday. Mr. Rhodes, is the father of Asa Rhodes, a badly wounded soldier from the Argonne, in France, and who is not able to perform strenuous labor yet on account of his wounds.

UNITY FRAT BEATS ARMORY CLUB TEAM BY A SCORE OF 26-21

Nip and Tuck Game Ends With Unity Boys Five Points to the Good.

The Unity Fraternity basketball team won last night from the Armory club by five points, the score being 26-21. The Armory club played a faster and more aggressive game and in the second half held the Frat to two baskets but on the other hand the Frat boys were able to find the basket oftener and made most of their shots good. Bill Lyon was the star for the Unity team, making six baskets and shooting four out of six foul. "Cliff" Crowley and "Crusie" Robinson also played good games for the Frat.

Skomp and Buttermore found the basket more times for the Armory club and played a good offensive game while Bon Lyon on a guard played a good defensive game.

The first half ended 17-16 in favor of the Frat and the game then belonged to either team until the final whistle. A large crowd was on hand to witness the contest, packing the balcony and using the seats around the floor. Most of the crowd stayed for the dancing and the floor was filled, but not overcrowded. Kifale's four piece orchestra furnished the music.

Friday evening of this week the Armory club will play the B. & O. clerks and there will also be a dance after the game. The lineup: Unity Fraternity—Bill Lyon and Cliff Crowley forwards; DeBolt and Drickoll, guards and Robinson center; Armory club—Skomp and Rodgers forwards; Bob Lyon and Buttermore, guards, and Van center.

JEWISH HOLIDAY

Fest of Dedication Begins Tuesday Evening, December 16.

Commencing on Tuesday evening December 16, one of the most interesting minor holidays in the Jewish calendar will be celebrated for a period of eight days. It is known as Chanukah, the Feast of Dedication, and being a joyous home festival it is looked forward to with anticipation by all, especially by the children, since to a great extent, it has become a children's festival.

The festival commemorates the stirring events of the period from 165 to 163 B. C. Antiochus Epiphanes the king of Syria, wishing to unite all the provinces under his dominion into one nation, issued a decree that only the Greek religion was to be practiced throughout. He thereupon tried to suppress Judaism, burned the Sacred Scrolls of the law and set up idols in the Holy Temple at Jerusalem. But the Jews did not submit to his decree. Instead, they resisted and after a long protracted warfare, Judas Maccabeus, the son of Mattathias the priest, supported by his four heroic brothers, defeated the Syrians, and on the 25th day of the month of Kislev in the year 165 B. C. removed the idols from the Temple and rededicated it to the service of God.

Many beautiful legends and stories have grown up around the Feast of Chanukah. The most beautiful of these states that on the day of the rededication only a single cruse of oil was found unspoiled, but this oil, through the miraculous power of God, proved sufficient to burn during the entire period of the reconsecration. For this reason the festival is kept for eight days and candles are lit during the entire period one on the first day, one on the second day and so on until eight candles have been lighted on the eighth day. Many other legends and features contribute toward making the Chanukah festival one of the most joyous in the Jewish year.

BIRDS SEEN ON BATTLEFIELDS

Paid Little Attention to Fire of Artillery.

EXPERT GIVES OBSERVATIONS

Soldier Who Was Also an Ornithologist Writes of His Experiences in France—Bullfinches, Peacefully Feeding, Headless of Fokkers Draining Directly Overhead—Robin, Singing, While Big Shells Explode Nearby—Bird Hunt Interrupted.

Stories of birds taking their chances in the din and ravages of battle are supplemented by the personal experiences of Endow Griscorn, who gave such time to his favorite study of ornithology as he could spare from his duties as a soldier and who records his observations in the journal of the Museum of Natural History. He found in the zone abundance of crows, magpies, blue jays, rooks, doves, wood pigeons, swallows, martins, thrushes, jays, larks, starlings, buntings, goldfinches and other species. Writing of one trip as a dispatch carrier, which took him to a hillside, through the spruce forests of the Vosges, Mr. Griscorn says:

"Saint-Die itself was partly in ruins, and was considered an unhealthy spot due to constant bombing, shelling and gassing—the last apparently the favorite method of annoyance. Every body carried a gas mask at all times, and had placed a gas mask in his pocket when a warning for gas was sounded. It was astonishing, therefore, to see the full quota of house sparrows twittering on the rooftops, the swallows flying up and down the main street. They had no gas masks, and it is hardly likely that they descended to cellars. Just what they did was a mystery."

Did Not Mind Fokkers. "When the dusk gathered the great guns began to thunder a scant mile away. In the garden of the old chateau which was used as headquarters was a tree laden with fruit. Here by the light of the setting sun, three beautiful bullfinches were peacefully feeding on the crimson berries, heedless of three Fokkers which droned directly overhead. Unperturbed and unmindful they nibbled and chattered, and then disappeared in the gathering gloom, leaving behind an impression so strong by its sharp contrast that it is graven deeply on my memory. At the end of October I was ordered to the first army sector. The hills northwest of Verdun had been selected as an excellent sniping station for a certain type of machine gun, and I was sent there on November 2 to start a station. As I was about to reach the country appeared more and more wrecked until it could be described as totally ruined in the hills to the northwest. There, where the flower of young French manhood had died by the tens of thousands, there was nothing but a succession of shell holes. The trenches were partly fallen in, the barbed wire entanglements were just as they had been left at the last triumphant advance, and here and there a few blasted tree trunks did duty for a wood. Vegetation—even was scant. A kestrel hovered over the dreary waste, a flock of goldfinches twittered around a thistle, and a great grey sparrow had taken up his quarters in a barbed wire entanglement.

Heard a Wren Singing. "As dusk fell we descended into a steep little valley to the ruined village of Fromeville, and elected to spend the night in one of the few houses which still boasted of a roof. That night the artillery fired at the front, and the intensity of drum fire. The allied heavy guns were concealed in the hills along a line lying a mile or two south of us. These joined merrily in the chorus, so that in the early morning the ground fairly shook."

The approach of dawn brought quiet, permitting a brief cat nap, and I was astonished to hear a wren singing in the rafters nearby, as I woke up. A bird hunt in this ruined village and its outskirts started immediately. "There were, of course, the smashed roofs and torn rafters furnishing them an abundance of hiding places among which they ducked and bobbed. Robin redbreasts were also common, singing sweetly in every bush that remained. Along the little brook flowing through the village was a solitary white warbler, and a great tit kept its home sort of company in a willow bush near by. House sparrows were chattering around the church, and a flock of tree sparrows were feeding around the horse pond. Add a flock of rooks flying past overhead and a pair of yellow buntings in a field just outside the village, and we have quite a list for such a locality. Later on a few shells burst on a hillside about a quarter of a mile away, to which the birds in the village paid not the slightest attention.

Bird Hunt Interrupted. "Somewhat late," he writes, "the bird hunt was rudely interrupted by the scream of a shell which fell near a field hospital in the outskirts of the village. A second shell, a 14-inch high explosive, ploughed through the roof of the church. Right opposite me was a bush, on each side of which a man was piled in such a way that down among the roots there was quite a little pit, an excellent retreat from the bird's point of view. A robin redbreast had been singing in this bush all the morning, and I was pleased to discover it among the roots, apparently alive and well, in spite of the fact that a high-powered shell had burst only 100 feet away. One might think the creature would have killed so small a bird, for it was a bad enough jar to the human frame. Knowing possibly more about shells than the bird, I would appear immediately after the last piece of masonry had fallen down. The bird would be down among the roots, as still as a mouse, and would not show any signs of life for about one minute, when it would begin to work up very cautiously toward the top of the bush. The scream of the next shell was the signal for both of us to dive hastily back into our respective retreats. Five minutes after the last shell had fallen this particular redbreast was singing sweetly from the top branches of its bush, joined by several others in various parts of the village, in marked contrast with the solemn-faced and quiet men who emerged somewhat later from scattered dugouts all over the hillside to take stock of the damage done, the lives lost and the wounded who needed immediate attention. It is, of course, obvious that a small bird has a better chance of not being hit by a shell fragment than a man. If, therefore, its resistance to shell shock and concussion were about equal to that of man, we would have a partial explanation of the existence of bird life in the war zone. Although it is highly improbable that a bird is equally resistant, we must not overlook the best of preventative, a barrier. Here again it is obvious that a tree trunk, a brick, a raft or world serve as an excellent deflector of concussion and sound waves for a bird crouched behind it, whereas these objects would totally fail to help a man."

ALIENS EAGER TO RETURN

Brief Post-War Visit to Native Country Enough for Them.

Aliens who rushed back to their native countries at the end of the war are returning to the United States after brief visits to European countries. They are shocked by the poverty and desolation found in the war zones, and surprised to find the cost of food and clothing higher in Europe than in the United States. Greeks, among the first to be granted passports after the war, are returning to the United States in great numbers. Similar conditions are apparent in Italy, where more than 2,000 Italians now are waiting passports to return to the United States. There is little emigration now from Russia and Poland, but a general exodus is expected as soon as conditions become more settled. Thousands of people are leaving Siberia for the United States.

Old Age Deferred.

"A woman is as old as she looks, and a man as old as he feels," is a familiar saying that is full of meaning nowadays. Women of all ages dress young, and men are active as long as strength and vitality will permit; but when vitality gets low and elderly people lack energy, there is nothing that will increase the speed, promote sleep, and vitality so surely and quickly as Vinoli, the cod liver and iron tonic without oil in fact, most druggists have such confidence in it that they sell it on a guarantee. Laughrey Drug Co., Vinoli is sold in Dunbar by D. C. Mason and druggists everywhere.—Ad.

American Buys Franklin Portrait.

A portrait of Benjamin Franklin, painted in Paris in 1778 by Joseph Siffred Duplessis, and showing him as the American ambassador, whom Parisians of that period knew, has arrived in this country, the property of Michael Friedman, the New York Evening Post states. Franklin presented the portrait to the French Empire, engineers and owners of the Chalotte fire engine, when he left France, and it was from the Perier family that Mr. Friedman purchased it this year. The portrait, whose gorgeous frame of the period is carved in the form of a serpent, is said to be typical of the best work of Duplessis, who was made a member of the academy in 1774, and was later appointed conservator of the museum of Versailles. In Versailles is a street called Duplessis, and a statue of him stands in a public square of the city.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"PRISONER OF THE PINES"—Starring J. Warren Kerrigan, is being presented today. Mr. Kerrigan has the part of a light-hearted, brave young French Canadian who loves his pretty sweetheart, Rosalie, with an affection that is sufficiently strong to make him give up his occupation of trapper and adopt the more arduous work of a lumber jack, that he may procure enough money to marry the fascinating young Canadian girl. Kerrigan has the part of Hillaire Latour, who always has a song upon his lip and who always is ready to jump in and defend himself when the occasion arises—and in "Prisoner of the Pines," Hillaire's physical prowess is often requested.

"Prisoners of the Pines" is a pictorialization of Kenneth B. Clarke's famous story of the same name. The central figure, Hillaire Latour, gives Kerrigan manifold opportunities to display his fine screen artistry, opportunities which he takes every advantage of. It is what may in all verily be called a typical Kerrigan role, and the popular young screen star fairly revels in the chances for effective celluloid activities. Kerrigan is ably and brilliantly supported by Lois Wilson, Walter Perry, and by a score of other well known and capable players.

THE SOISSON.

"FRECKLES"—A delightful dramatization of Gene Stratton-Porter's charming story, is being shown today. The fact that there have been more readers of this story than any other book published in a decade—a fair estimate is in the millions—makes the dramatization of the utmost importance to the dramatic world.

"Freckles" as a song play is stronger than "Freckles" as a story. The characters live, love and have adventure—one can see and hear there is nothing left to the imagination. The Broadway Amusement company, under whose management the present tour is conducted, has made the production of "Freckles" exceedingly elaborate, and has assembled a company of unusual excellence for the presentation of this charming song play.

The music for the play and the songs rendered by Freckles and other characters are by the Viennese Composer, Axel Frydland, and are a novelty from a musical point of view. The Woodland Fantasy played during the play is a masterpiece. This is not a moving picture.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. For 17 years he used these tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) in his private practice with great success. They do all the good that calomel does but have no bad after effects. No pain, no griping, no injury to the gums or danger from acid foods—yet they stimulate the liver and bowels. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "icky" and "heavy." Note how they clear clouded brain and perk up the spirits. 10c and 25c a box.

SOFT COAL OUTPUT WAS 44.8 PER CENT THIRD STRIKE WEEK

As Compared With 29.6 the First and 33.3 the Second Anthracite Production, the Largest of Year.

According to the estimates of the United States Geological Survey production of bituminous coal during the third week of the strike, November 22, was 44.8 per cent of normal. During the first week, before the strike order was withdrawn, it had been 29.6 per cent, and during the second week, 33.3 per cent.

The week's output, including lignite and coal made into coke, was 5,416,000 net tons. Compared with the week before, this was an increase of 1,390,000 tons. The average production during the four weeks ended October 25, which may be regarded as normal, was 12,088,000 tons.

For the calendar year to November 22 the production was 417,038,000 tons or 118,379,000 tons less than during the corresponding period of 1934.

The anthracite industry responded to the stimulus of active demand caused by the soft-coal strike with the largest production of the year. The week's output is estimated at 2,018,000 net tons, an increase over the week before of 192,000 tons, or 10.5 per cent. The highest rate of production ever maintained by the anthracite mines for an extended period was during the summer of 1934 when wartime demand for the steam sizes of anthracite carried the output to an average of 2,000,000 tons a week.

ROBUST CHILDREN

A child should not look pale, thin or worn. Such condition denotes malnutrition. To keep up growth and robustness a child needs a plentiful diet rich in vitamins.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

abundant in growth-promoting properties, is an ideal supplemental food that could well be a part of the diet of every growing child.

Children always do well on Scott's Emulsion.

Ingenious Small Wraps of Fur

Although there has been a certain amount of reaction, in the direction of simplicity in fur garments, the mode finds place for much that may not be classed as simple. For last winter designers vied with one another in making small wraps that embodied several different styles in one garment—capes, coats and scarfs were all suggested in a single hybrid. The designers were endlessly ingenious and the cleverness of these smaller garments gave them a charm that made a very successful appeal. So much so that the same idea has reappeared this season in fur wraps and there is a hint of it in the wide scarfs of brushed or angora wool that are furnished with belts to match.

Among the new models those that are most like a scarf, prove to be the most useful. By clearing the belt they may be worn with a tailored suit, when extra warmth is required. Worn with a one-piece frock and belted down they become a coat, wonderfully becoming and convenient for afternoon or evening wear. One of the best of the new models of this kind appears at the right of the two shown in the picture. It is made in several furs: kolinsky, mink, dyed squirrel, seal skin, are all effective in it, but the fur having a dark stripe are best. It is shown in kolinsky with a wide cape collar and a narrow belt. The stripes in the skins are placed to run diagonally across the ends at the front and a fringe of tails adds an appearance of considerable length. The collar may be brought up in the muffler fashion. The muff to match is smaller than the average, but it is soft and nearly flat in the approved style.

Seal and leopard are combined in the chic coat at the left in such a way that each enhances the beauty of the other. The leopard skin looks like a small sleeveless jacket and its brilliance is softened by the indefinite markings in the pelt and a very generous shawl collar of seal skin. This wrap has three-quarter sleeves and a narrow belt of seal skin. It extends in panels (that widen toward the bottom) below the waistline at the back and straight in front, leaving the hips uncovered.

Julia Bottomly

An Ideal Trimming.

How glad one ought to be to see the betch leather come back as trimming for hats for middle-aged women. It has a softness about it that no other hat ornament ever had and is more becoming to old faces than the harsh trimmings that have been in vogue so long.

Feet Hurt?

New Treatment Gives Soothing, Cooling Comfort at Once.

Delayed Decision.
"Senator Twobles says he is retiring to private life for the sake of his family."
"Umph."
"Maybe he's sincere."
"I doubt it. He managed to put his family prior twenty years."

To fresher, cool and comfort hot, tired, aching, swollen, sweaty feet, rub in a little Georo Wormwood Balm. Instant relief, it penetrates at once (like a vanishing cream), and Oh! how cool and fine your feet will feel. Gives real, honest foot comfort, the kind you have been wishing for, and it is so easy and pleasant to use. Rub it in—that's all; it doesn't take a minute.

Only one explanation, captivity. The only live okapi in captivity has been brought to Antwerp from the Congo. The okapi is the survivor of a distant ancestor of the giraffe. An adult stands about five feet high, and although it has the general shape of the giraffe, its neck is relatively shorter and its forelegs are not so high in proportion to the hindquarters.

The sides of the animal's head are light brown color and the general coloration of the body is a dark purple. The most striking characteristic is that the rump and the upper part of the legs are transversely striped with black and white. It was first known in 1901, having been found in the Semliki forest, haunting low undergrowth and swamps.

Getting On.

"How did that actress ever secure an engagement, I wonder?"
"Why, didn't you read about it? She applied to a manager who refused to listen to her and she shot him. Then she had several offers."

She Refuses to Go Dry.
"I'll say this for the wife."
"What?"
"Nowadays she's the only thing left in the house that still has the same old kick."

The Brunswick

For the Real Xmas Spirit

These days, holiday joys are not confined to candles, wreaths, bells, or even trees. The celebration that is without music lacks real Christmas spirit. On The Brunswick music is reproduced in tones that are exquisite. Music that thrills the very soul.

And why is Brunswick music different? Because it has a distinctly exclusive Method of Reproduction, due to two exclusive patented features.

The Method of Reproduction

The new Brunswick Method of Reproduction is the most advanced and finest yet devised. In perfecting it all old standards were discarded. Heretofore the instrument you bought determined your range of choice of records. The Brunswick has lifted the ban on the selections of other makers. With it you play all records of whatever make. Moreover, it plays all records at their best. And all this by means of the Ultona and the Tone Amplifier.

The Ultona

The Ultona—a scientific creation—is an all-in-one reproducer. It supplies, at a turn of the hand, the right needle, diaphragm and weight for playing any make record.

The Tone Amplifier

The Tone Amplifier is the all-wood, vibrant throat of The Brunswick. It is oval shaped—moulded to meet musical and acoustical laws. Truer, richer, sweeter tones—those that were hitherto lost in phonographic reproduction—are restored by this great invention.

A Brunswick Recital—Especially For You

Come here today. Tell us what records you like most and we will be glad to arrange a Brunswick concert for you. No obligation whatever. The pleasure is all ours.

14 HENS LAY 13 EGGS A DAY. EASILY DONE

Mr. Moore's Hens Lay When Eggs are Scarce. Here's the Plan.

"I had been getting 2 or 3 eggs a day from 15 hens. Then I commenced putting Don Sung in the feed, and am getting 11 to 13 eggs a day, with one hen sitting. Don Sung is the best thing I ever found for making hens lay."

B. L. Moore, 113 Clayburn St., Danville, Va.

Mr. Moore used 50 cents worth of Don Sung in January. Figure his profit with eggs selling at around 10 cents a dozen. And this is no better than Don Sung is doing for thousands of others. Accept our offer just as Mr. Moore did.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit, kindly call us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese) is an egg-laying stimulant, and is a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in all weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Buttrick-Dugan, 218 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.—Adv.

URGES PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Can Make Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

People who say that catarrh is a disease not to be taken seriously are harshly rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been making a special study of the growth of this loathsome, yet altogether too common disease.

He claims that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nostrils and throat is a prolific breeding ground for germs—not only the germs of influenza, but many other kinds as well.

If people would only stop experimenting for two weeks and try a simple remedy made of Monotholized Arcine mixed with enough boiled water to make a full pint, half of the catarrh in this country would be abolished. It's really no joke for people who don't know about this simple recipe to be constantly sniffing and snuffling, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Monotholized Arcine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint, gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.
